ARTIST PROFILE

SHANE MCNUTT

BAD DOG CERAMICS

Shane is a Toronto-based ceramic artist. He was educated at Ontario College of Art & Design, majoring in ceramics, and also trained at Sheridan College. Over the last few years, his work has focused primarily on thrown porcelain domestic objects, thick slip decoration and carved surfaces. More recently, McNutt has completed a year-long Artist-in-Residence position at Medalta. Over the year, his work evolved into thick, slab-built earthenware wall plates and domestic objects inspired by video game imagery.

McNutt has exhibited both locally and nationally and sells his work through various retailers. He began the Artist-in-Residence programme at Harbourfront Centre in December 2013.
